

CHIRON'S WAY

Creative Union

Hoof, Heart and Drum

Join Sandra and Sara for this drum making workshop. Together with the horses, they will guide you through a weekend of enchanted learning, designed to enliven your spirit and captivate your heart.

Creative Union will combine reflective exercises with horses, guided journeywork, painting and the arts, enabling you to creatively and reverently make, design, and play your own drum.

The beat of hoof, heart, and drum will join together, creating a sum greater than their parts, a song to be played over and again, encouraging us to find our personal rhythms while at the same time, harmonizing with all.
